

Gabrielle Pragasam

Brisbane-trained botanical artist Gabrielle Pragasam developed her love for natural detail while studying at the Watercolour Society of Queensland and Margaret Saul School of Botanic Art. Since 2003, she has exhibited in the Botanica exhibitions at the Queensland Herbarium, and various displays including the Royal Queensland Show and Canberra Botanical.

Much of Gabrielle's work is held in private collections throughout Australia and overseas. She is currently a member of the Botanical Art Society of Australia and associate member of the Society of Botanical Artists.
